

For this assignment, you can use one or both of the attached images to create an altered image of “yours truly.” The image does not need to be recognizably me but it must include components taken from the source file(s). It is completely up to you as to what you do with the images. You may incorporate additional images into the final product but you do not have to.

The focus of this project is to three-fold:

- * Make clean and good selections
- * Tell a story that creates emotion
- * Have fun! (short of hateful or obscene images, anything is fair game.)

Grading Criteria:

- Creativity
- Aesthetics
- Professionalism and attention to detail
- Demonstration of Photoshop skills
- Application of concepts discussed in class (i.e. visual metaphor, exaggeration, ethical [or unethical] treatment, etc.)
